Campus Resource Guide

Welcome to the Undergraduate Success Center's UIC Campus Resource Guide!

UIC has myriad resources, services, and opportunities for students. In the following pages, you will find a concise campus student resource guide.

Over 120 offices/programs represented have been assigned one or more of the following categories:

Advising - Professional advisors or counselors can assist students.

Offices included here can be found at www.advising.uic.edu;

Athletics - Information about our NCAA athletics activities;

Bookstores - indicates official UIC bookstores;

Campus Programs - Information about the wide range of student organizations at UIC;

Career, Co-op, Internship, and Employment Information - Campus resources related to out-of-classroom, experiential, and career-based opportunities;

Centers for Cultural Understanding and Social Change/Student Resources - The six centers represented here support specific populations on campus and provide opportunities for intercultural engagement among students, faculty, staff, and Chicago communities;

Child Care - Child care services provided by UIC for students, faculty, and staff;

Clubs for Students - See Campus Programs/Student Organizations and Student Life.

Educational Resources - Academic support and resources for students including advising, tutoring, monetary support, collaborative learning, specialized programs, etc.;

Fitness, Recreation, and Wellness - Student resources and opportunities for an active and healthy lifestyle;

Health Services - Information about the university's health insurance program and other health services for students;

Legal Services - Access to legal services for students;

Orientation - The Orientation Program serves new, incoming UIC students (both transfer and first-year students);

Campus Services - These are services provided for all UIC constituents including students, but are not specifically directed to students;

Student Health Insurance – See Health Services;

Student Research - Research opportunities for undergraduates ;

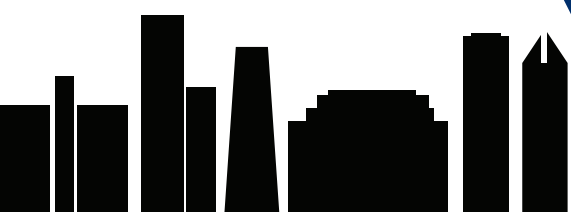

Student Resources - A wide range of offices and services geared primarily for students;

Campus Resource Guide

Student Unions – See Student Centers;

UIC Landmark Locations - These are locations that are landmarks at UIC and contain a variety of resources;
