

The University of Illinois at Chicago
Health Professions Navigator (UIC-HPN) Presents:

The Illinois Advisors Conference

Navigating the Waters: Steering Pre-Health Students in the Direction of Success

UIC Student Center West
828 S. Wolcott Ave

Friday, April 8, 2016
8:30AM-3:00PM

REGISTER NOW

The conference is free and open to all faculty and staff who advise students.

The goal of the conference is to empower advisors by offering strategies they can use to encourage and support students who are interested in the health professions. Populations addressed include those who identify as underrepresented minorities, as coming from disadvantaged backgrounds, or as veterans. Through panels, roundtable discussions and case studies, advisors will be provided with information to help their students be more competitive applicants for graduate or professional school.
