

Health Professions Navigator Program

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN A HEALTH CAREER?

The Health Professions Navigator Scholars Program

The Health Professions Navigator Scholars Program (HPN Scholars) is a professional development program for undergraduate students enrolled at the University of Illinois at Chicago (UIC). The goal of HPN Scholars is to increase the number of individuals from disadvantaged backgrounds who are pursuing health professions careers by offering mentoring and educational programming. Through interactions with students, faculty, staff, and practitioners, program participants will be exposed to issues related to health disparities as well as learn about the various pathways into the health sciences and health professions. The HPN Scholars program will help participants successfully navigate their undergraduate degree program and the admissions process for professional or graduate schools. Upon successful completion of the program, participants will be eligible for a $500 stipend.

- Learn about health disparities and careers in the health science professions
- Learn about research/practice opportunities projects
- Participate in workshops to prepare for the graduate/professional school admissions process

Eligibility:

- ✓ UIC undergraduate students interested in pursuing careers in a health science profession
- ✓ Applicants must self-identify as coming from an economically and educationally disadvantaged background
- ✓ Applicants must be a U.S. citizen or permanent resident

Program Dates and Deadlines:

- ✓ Application packet deadline: September 10, 2017
- ✓ Notification of admission starting: Late August, 2017
- ✓ Start of program: September 27, 2017
- ✓ End of program: April 25, 2018
- ✓ Program will meet twice a month on Wednesday evenings from 6:00pm-7:30pm

To apply, please visit: <https://uofi.uic.edu/fb/sec/6357182>

For more information, please contact Kimberly Johnson, Project Manager for the Health Professions Navigator Program, at 312-996-5511.

The Health Professions Navigator Program is sponsored by the Health Careers Opportunity Program Grant #D18HP29044.